

The following Father's heart messages are presented for your personal study, or as a foundation for a Bible Study. This is a dynamic work. We will continually be adding and subtracting messages as led by the Lord. Please feel free to use these messages as you need, respecting our copyright as you do. If you should copy and send them to others, please also tell them about our daily e-mail messages and our web-site. Thank you for your co-operation.